About Experience Highlights

San Lorenzo Fort

Set on a cliff overlooking the mouth of the Chagres River, San Lorenzo fortress was constructed between 1598 and 1601 for the main purpose of protecting the Spanish treasures and ships which exited the Chagres river in order to sail back to Europe. In 1670 Pirate Joseph Bradley took the fortress with the help of a plan crafted by famous Pirate Henry Morgan. One year later Morgan entered into the river in order to reach the First City of Panama. San Lorenzo's fortress is a silent witness to how Panama was key for the colonization of Latin America and the legendary stories of conquerors and pirates.
